Syracuse to Host NY Morgan Regional Championship Horse Show
September 10-13

Close to 400 Morgan Horses from across the country to gather in Syracuse for show

SYRACUSE, NEW YORK, September 8, 2008— An excess of 375 Morgan Horses from across the country will gather in Syracuse at the New York State Fairgrounds September 10-13, 2008. The NY Morgan Regional Championship show will feature equestrians from across the country to vie for Regional Championship titles.

Spectators will be able to witness first hand the Morgan Horse which is “America’s First Breed” demonstrating their versatility for which the breed is known for.

Thursday evening (September 11) will feature the Ladies English Pleasure class, which has been designated as the UPHA Pink Ribbon class where riders help raise money for breast cancer research. Riders as well as spectators will be wearing pink to celebrate a friend or loved one who has battled this disease.

Friday evening (September 12) is “money night” where the NY Stallion Service Auction and Purina Mills will award $29,000 in three prestige’s classes of the NY Stallion Service Auction program which includes a class for foals.

Admission is FREE so make plans now to join the NY State Morgan Horse Society as they mark 48 years of history in the Morgan breed! For more information on the event visit www.nysmhs.org
