Barter Your Bowie Knife and Trade Your Treasure:
*Haggling Happens Here!

NYS Arms Collectors Association's Gun Show and Sale
April 18-19 at NYS Fairgrounds

SYRACUSE, NY— If you've always wanted to test your negotiating skills, come to the New York State Arms Collectors Association's Gun Show and Sale April 18-19, 2009 at the Americraft Center of Progress Building at the Empire Expo Center on the New York State Fairgrounds.

Gun shows cling to the old-fashioned trade and barter way of doing business. Haggling for the best deal is both expected and accepted. Old and unwanted guns are purchased by collectors who pay top prices.

It's expected to be the biggest gun show ever held in New York State, drawing more than 800 exhibits and displays from all over the United States and Canada.

Featured will be displays and sale tables from U.S. military arms, Colt Revolvers, high grade double barreled shotguns, Remingtons, muskets, Smith & Wesson, Kentucky rifles, gun parts and accessories, Indian items, Frontier and Western paraphernalia, Sharps, swords, Springfields, Winchesters, bowie knives, powder horns, civilian and military weapons from all nations, custom made and factory made knives, military relics and equipment from before the Revolutionary War to the present.

TIME: Saturday, April 18 - (9 a.m. to 5 p.m.)
Sunday, April 19 - (9 a.m. to 3 p.m.)

ADMISSION: $6.00 per day. Children under 12, with parents, free.
$5.00 per day – Senior Citizens.
