Syracuse Convention & Visitors Bureau Cleans City Taxi Cars And All It Will Cost Is a Listening Ear

SCVB Holds 'Taxi Car Wash Day' to Say Thank You and Have Some One-on-One Time with Taxi Drivers
***

SYRACUSE, NEW YORK— The Syracuse Convention & Visitors Bureau (SCVB) wants to show its appreciation for all of Syracuse's hard-working taxi and shuttle drivers. The taxi and shuttle driver both play an integral part in showing off Central New York's hospitality; in fact, many times, it is the taxi driver who welcomes Onondaga County's visitors and guests to Syracuse for the first time. Refreshments will be served.

WHO: All Syracuse taxi and shuttle drivers are invited to enjoy the SCVB's 'Taxi Car Wash Day'!

WHAT: Taxi Car Wash Day – The staff of the SCVB will wash the vehicle of the taxi driver for FREE to show their appreciation.

WHERE: Greater Syracuse Chamber of Commerce, 572 South Salina Street. Please enter the back parking lot from Clinton Street.

WHEN: TOMORROW: Tuesday, August 19, 2008 -- 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Special visual media opportunity at 10 a.m.
***Rain Date: Wednesday, August 20, 2008***

WHY: The SCVB staff is doing this to thank taxi drivers for doing such a great job welcoming visitors to Onondaga County and making a great first impression on visitors and guests. The SCVB also wants to make sure taxi drivers are armed with all of the most up-to-date information on the Greater Syracuse area, especially the facts that would be of interest to their passengers. This is a great opportunity for taxi drivers to get a FREE car wash and chat with the experts on things to do and see (all of the 'surprises') in Syracuse.
